With an overall length of 57 meters, this three mast topsail schooner moves with a grace and stability that only larger sailing vessels can offer; 2000 square meters of sail are complemented by two 500 horsepower marine engines and two desalinators that each produce 5000 liters of fresh water per day.

The Goddess of the Archipelago –Dewi Nusantara, its Indonesian name-, was designed to be totally independent for long periods at sea while offering unparalleled comfort.
